11 U.S.C. §727 requires that in order to be eligible for discharge, each individual debtor in a chapter 7 case must complete an instructional course in personal financial management taken after the petition is filed. This course is in addition to the credit counseling that is required prior to the case being filed with the bankruptcy court. A list of approved training agencies is available online at <http://www.usdoj.gov/ust/eo/bapcpa/ccde/index.htm>.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT you must submit your Financial Management Course Certificate or Official Form 423 (Certification About a Financial Management Course) to the court at the address shown above. You must file this document with the court no later than 60 days after the first date set for the meeting of creditors under Bankruptcy Code §341(a) in a chapter 7 case. If you do not file this document with the court within 60 days after the first date set for the meeting of creditors, the court will close your case without discharge when it is otherwise ready to close.

Once your case has been closed, you will not be able to receive a discharge without filing a motion to reopen the case and paying a reopening fee, which is currently $260.00 for a chapter 7 case.

Official Form 423 is printed on the reverse of this notice for your convenience. It is also available under "Official Forms" on the Forms and Publications page of the court's web site (www.caeb.uscourts.gov).

Certification About a Financial Management Course

If you are an individual, you must take an approved course about personal financial management if:

- you filed for bankruptcy under chapter 7 or 13, or
- you filed for bankruptcy under chapter 11 and § 1141 (d)(3) applies.

In a joint case, each debtor must take the course. 11 U.S.C. §§ 727(a)(11) and 1328(g).

After you finish the course, the provider will give you a certificate. The provider may notify the court that you have completed the course. If the provider does not notify the court, you need not file this form. If the provider does not notify the court, then Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 must each file this form with the certificate number before your debts will be discharged.

- If you filed under chapter 7 and you need to file this form, file it within 60 days after the first date set for the meeting of creditors under § 341 of the Bankruptcy Code.
- If you filed under chapter 11 or 13 and you need to file this form, file it before you make the last payment that you plan requires or before you file a motion for a discharge under § 1141(d)(5)(B) or § 1328(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(c).

In some cases, the court can waive the requirement to take the financial management course. To have the requirement waived, you must file a motion with the court and obtain a court order.
